“N-NURSE (Navajoland Nurses United for Research, Service, and Education) incorporated in 2005 as a non-profit following nine years of collaboration with the University of New Mexico College of Nursing to affect nursing within the Navajo Nation. N-NURSE works to integrate a Diné worldview into nursing curriculum and continuing education and is dedicated to nurturing a network of nurses who serve the Diné. Its Mentorship Project brings Diné nursing students together with N-NURSE mentors. With the leadership of N-NURSE President, Ursula Knoki-Wilson, the organization has conducted research and community assessments to promote health and wellness within the Navajo Nation. N-NURSE organizes and hosts nursing education symposiums where nursing students and licensed nurses learn how to provide culturally safe care.”
