

N-NURSE EIGHTH SYMPOSIUM Overview AGENDA
April 28-29, 2016, DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel, Flagstaff, AZ

*“Hane Bee Áheedahodit’i: Where Our Stories Meet”
Diné and Western Approaches to Early Childhood Development.*

PURPOSE STATEMENT:

This symposium inspires dialogue between Diné and Western child development teachings with a focus on the newborn and infant. This symposium will use a cultural safety model to support healthy childcare, family relationships, and nursing practice within Native communities.

THURSDAY, April 28, 2016 Coconino/Canyon Room

East: Nitsáhákees Beginning; Thinking in more ways than one

7:30 – 8:30 am Registration and Breakfast

8:00 – 8:30 am Welcome: Grace Marks, N-NURSE Board Member

Invocation: Roland Begay, Native Practitioner

Opening Remarks and Symposium Overview, Ursula Knoki-Wilson, N-NURSE President

Moderator: Grace Marks

8:30 – 9:30 am Keynote: “Touchpoints in Childhood Development” Josh Sparrow, MD

9:30–9:45 am Health Break

9:45–10:45 am “Diné Model for Childhood Development” Roland Begay, Native Practitioner

10:45 – 11:30 am “Newborn Developmental Care” Barbara Overman, PhD, CNM; Dorinda Welle, PhD

11:30 – 1:00 pm Lunch on your own

South: Nahat’á Planning; Expectations

Moderator: Grace Marks

1:00 – 2:00 pm “Child Wellbeing on the Navajo Nation” Diana Hu, MD

2:00 – 3:15 pm Workgroups: “Mother Baby Observation” Facilitator: Dorinda Welle, PhD

3:15 - 3:30 pm Health Break

3:30 – 4:30 pm “Reflection on where our stories meet” Facilitator: Barbara Overman, PhD, CNM

6:00 - 9:00 pm “Honoring Banquet” & Silent Auction (Canyon/Kaibab Room)

N-NURSE EIGHTH SYMPOSIUM AGENDA

April 28-29, 2016, DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel, Flagstaff, AZ

Coconino/Canyon Room

*“Hane Bee Áheedahodii’ti: Where Our Stories Meet”
Diné and Western Approaches to Early Childhood Development.*

FRIDAY, April 29, 2016 Coconino/Canyon Room

West: Iiná Bring improvement to life; Application based on values

7:30 – 8:30 am Full Breakfast
8:00—8:15 am Welcome: Grace Marks
Meditation: Loyce Phoenix, MSN, BSN, N-NURSE Board Member

Moderator: Grace Marks

8:15—9:15am “The Giving Voice Study: Diné Patients’ Perspectives on Accessing Native Medicine Services” Ursula Knoki-Wilson, MPH, MSN, CNM; Barbara Overman, PhD, CNM; Dorinda Welle, PhD

9:15 – 10:15 am Panel: “Where Our Services Meet: Importance of cultural supports”
Facilitator: Ursula Knoki-Wilson, MPH, MSN, CNM
Roland Begay, Chinle Office of Native Medicine
Linda Ross, Chinle Office of Native Medicine
Mark Carroll, MD, Previously Medical Director Northern Arizona Health Care Facility
Presently Physician Program Consultant with AHCCCS
Vivian Arviso, MA, Chairperson, Navajo Women’s Commission, Navajo Nation

10:15 – 10:30 am Health Break

10:30 -11:30 am Dialogue with Speakers: Facilitator-Josh Sparrow, MD

11:30—1:00 pm Lunch on your own

North: Sihasin Reflecting; Silence; Being rather than doing; Wisdom; Self efficacy

Moderator: Grace Marks

1:00 – 2:30 pm Panel: Growing through collective wisdom for early child wellbeing”
Facilitator: Karine Crow, PhD, RN
First Things First: Rhonda Etsitty, BS
Family Spirit: Kendrea Begay, BA
NNMC: Susie John, MD

2:30—2:45 pm Health Break

2:45– 4:00 pm Workgroups: “The Wisdom of Play”
Facilitators: Claude Enfield & Cotillian Sneddy of “Child Play”

4:00 – 4:30 pm Ha’góónee: Reflection, Closing Ceremony & Evaluation